Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Alice F. Miller has devoted 29 years to the service of the state of South Dakota; and,

Whereas, During her career, Alice has worked in the Department of Public Safety, the Department of Health for over 18 years and the Department of Transportation for the last 7 years in the Office of Bridge Design; and,

Whereas, Alice has checked thousands of time sheets, made hundreds of room and vehicle reservations, processed thousands of vouchers, organized records and, in general, kept the Bridge Office running in an efficient and orderly manner; and,

Whereas, Alice's co-workers acknowledge that they have depended on Alice to arrange trips, meetings, picnics, Christmas parties, process travel vouchers, find records and documents and simply manage all organization, and she always performed these duties with efficiency and professionalism; and,

Whereas, Alice is the proud mother of two children, Aaron and Erika, has two loving grandchildren, Devan and Kaitlyn and one son-in-law, Brad; and,

Whereas, Alice's coworkers have watched, with great concern, as Alice battled cancer for the last 4 years with a determination and courage that has amazed and inspired us while she maintains a cheerful and positive outlook; and,

Whereas, Alice has reluctantly reconciled herself to retirement; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan on this special occasion:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim February 24, 2006, as in South Dakota, and I join her family, many friends and co-workers in celebrating her long and outstanding service to the citizens of South Dakota.

ALICE F. MILLER DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-fourth Day of February in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Six.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
